Numb. 1202

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday May 24. to Monday May 28. 1677.

Warsaw, May 5.

ON Monday next their Majesties begin their journey from hence towards Dantzicke, where, and in Prussia, they will, it's believed pass most of the Summer. The Archbishop of Gnesna is going for Rome. And yesterday the Palatin of Culm, Ambassador to the Court for the receiving the Ratification of the late concluded Treaty, set out from hence. Dorosensko, General of the Rebel Cossacks, who hath been the Author of so much trouble to this Kingdom is at present, as we understand, at Mosco, where he is very kindly treated, though there is ground to believe that it will not last long.

Copenhagen, May 25. This afternoon the King is passed over into Schonen, to take a review of his Troops that are there, and will be here again the latter end of the week. Yesterday we heard great shooting for several hours in Schonen, what the occasion was we do not know, but believe some parties may have met, and had some action together. The Munster Troops are not yet come up, when they are, the Campagne will immediately be begun, and all endeavors will be used to relieve Christianstadt, which we fear begins to be straitned. The news we had of the burning of 14 Suedes Men of War at Stockholme, is not confirmed. We expect here with much impatience the Squadron of Men of War, which are fitted in Holland, to act in the Baltick this Summer, in conjunction with our Fleet. From Norway we have advice, that the Suedes will only act defensively on that side; that the Sieur Guldenlieu (who notwithstanding what has been said of his being sent for hither, is to remain there this Summer) will have an Army of 10 or 12000 men.

Berlin, May 26. On Monday last the Electress of Brandenburg was brought to bed of a Princess, who will be Christned on Sunday next, the Godfathers are the Duke of Lorrain, the Bishop of Munster, and the Prince of Nassaw, and the Empress, and Marckgravinne of Brandenburg are Godmothers. Our Troops are drawing together from their several quarters, and on the first of the next month they will be in a Body.

Hamburg, May 28. We have news here that Christianstadt was surrendred to the Suedes on the 19 instant, and that the Garison were all made Prisoners of War, which will hasten the King of Denmark into the Field. We are told that the Duke of Zell is going to raise three new Regiments, and that the Commissions were preparing; that the Duke of Hanover had sent the Sieur Groot his first Minister to his Brother the Duke of Zell, and that it was believed there would be suddenly an Enterview between those two Princes.

Thionville, May 23. The 15 inst. the Imperial Army under the command of the Duke of Saxen Lawenburg came to Lichtenburg, two Regiments who had the Vanguard advancing at the same time to St Vandel. The 17 the Duke of Lorrain had his head-quarter at Wasselbrwick, where he caused a Bridge to be made over the Soulre, and passed it the 19. The 21 he repassed the Moselle with the Troops under his command, over a Bridge of Boats below Wasserbillick, with intention to advance to Sarbrucke, to join there the Imperial Army. We hear that great quantities of Bread are baking at Treves, and that many Boats laden with Provisions pass up the Saar, for the use of the Imperialists, into whose designs we cannot as yet penetrate.

Strasburg, May 24. We have advice from Hailbron, that the Troops of the Elector of Saxe, of the Duke of Saxe Eysenach, and of other Princes, making in all about eight Regiments, were marching through Suabia towards Brisgow, where they will join with some other Forces, in order to the blocking up of Brisac. The French tell us that they will form a Camp near Benfeldt, where the Sieur de Monclar at present is. Our advices from Nancy say, that the Mareschal de Crequi had in several small Bodies 20000 men.

Cologne, May 28. The Munster Troops which came from Wetteravia, had yesterday their quarters at Lubler, three Leagues from hence, in the Country of Juliers, where they expect the other Munster Troops, who come from Westphalia, and are to pass the Rhine at Keyserswert. We do not yet know when the Osnabrug Troops will quit their quarters, their General the Sieur de Louvigny, is gone to Wesel, from whence he will be back again in few days.

Liege, May 28. The Munster Troops that are to assist the Spaniards this Campagne, are come into the Dioceses of Cologne; but we wonder much that those of the Duke of Zell and the Bishop of Osnabrug do not yet begin to move. Here is much said of a design to besiege Maestricht this Summer, and we are told that the French themselves seem to expect it; but others tell us they will abandon it: A short time will let us know the certainty.

Nimeguen, May 29. The Marquis de los Balbaces, Ambassador of Spain, is, as we understand, arrived at Cologne, from whence he is in few days expected here, with Signior Bevilacqua the Popes Nuncio. The several Ambassadors have given in to the Mediators, their respective Answers to the Pretentions of their Adverse Parties.

Hague, June 1. The Baillew Van Bacnken, who you know hath been some time a Prisoner, hath been very severely Tortured, to make him confess what is charged upon him, which he not doing, it is said that so soon as he is in a condition, he will be again put upon the Wrack. We cannot yet learn the Crimes he is accused of. The States of the Lower Saxony have sent hither to desire Passports of this State for the Deputies they have resolved to send to Nimeguen; which the States have accordingly ordered to be dispatched. The Pentionary Fagel, and the Sieur Van Beverning, are returned hither from the Army, which they left, as we are told, in a condition to march in few days. Yesterday, as we are informed, the States received Letters from the Sieur Binchot, giving an account of the Victory obtained over the French at Tobago. We as yet only know the substance, viz. That the Enemy had landed about 2000 men to attack the Fort; that they were repulsed with great loss, above 1000, as is said remaining

ing